JUDICIAL DEPARTMENT.

IN THE CHIEF COURT OF MYSORE.

Criminal Side.

Rule of Practice No. 61, dated 16*th March* 1895.

Under section 553 of the Code of Criminal Procedure and with the sanction of Government, the Chief Court has framed the following Rules, regulating the procedure to be observed, when requisitions for records of Criminal cases are made by Government or other Heads of Departments and prescribing Rules for inspection of records by officers of the Police Department.

I. Whenever Government desires to peruse the record of any Criminal trial, a requisition for it signed by the Chief Secretary or other officer authorized by Government to make a requisition, will be sent to the Sessions Judge or to the District Magistrate, according as the trial is in the Sessions Court or before a Magistrate. On the receipt of such a requisition, the Sessions Judge or the District Magistrate shall duly forward the record in accordance with such requisition.

II. Except as directed above, no Criminal Court shall send its records to any Court or any officer or any Department of Government, unless the requisition is made under the authority of any rule or law for the time being in force.

III. When a prosecution is instituted before a Criminal Court by any Department of Government, or when an officer of Government is an accused person, a copy of the final order or judgment shall be sent free of cost to the Head of the Department which instituted the prosecution or to whom the accused officer was subordinate.

IV. If the Head of the Department wishes to obtain a copy of the entire record (other than the copy of the final order or judgment furnished free of charge under the preceding para), he shall make an application to the presiding Judge or Magistrate and send any Officer or Clerk of his Department to make copies. The Officer or Clerk deputed for the purpose shall be deemed to be a licensed copyist and he shall be permitted to make a copy in the precincts of the Court-house and under the supervision of the Head Ministerial Officer of the Court.

V. Whenever it shall appear to any Officer of Police, not below the rank of Inspector of Police, that an inspection of the records of any Criminal trial or appeal will facilitate the detection or prevention of crime or is desired for examination of the conduct of Police officers connected with the case such Officer may apply to the Sessions Judge or presiding Magistrate of the Court in which the records are lodged for permission to inspect the same.

VI. The application referred to in the preceding rule shall be made in writing and shall contain a description of the records and shall state the purpose for which the inspection is sought, and the Sessions Judge or Magistrate may grant or refuse the application as he may see fit. If the application is refused, the Sessions Judge or Magistrate shall record the reasons for refusal and shall communicate a copy thereof to the Officer of Police concerned. If the application is granted, the Sessions Judge or Magistrate shall make arrangements for permitting the inspection to be conducted in accordance with the next following rule.

VII. Every inspection of records under these rules shall be conducted by an Officer of Police not below the rank of Inspector of Police, it shall take place within the precincts of the Court in which the records are lodged and in the presence of an Officer of the Court who shall be deputed by the Sessions Judge or Magistrate for the purpose and no record or part of a record shall be removed by the inspecting officer from the precincts of the Court.

FINANCIAL DEPARTMENT.

L. F. Circular No. 16, dated Bangalore, 13th March 1895.

To—The Deputy Commissioners, Treasury Department.

As it is observed that in some Districts bills on account of contingent and feeding charges drawn by the Vice-Presidents of Municipalities are cashed in the Treasuries under the authority of Government Proceedings No. 952-62—L. F. 442-02, dated 18th July 1894, the Comptroller has the honor to state that the Proceedings apply only to such bills as are drawn on account of establishment. Sums required for all other expenditure should be paid only on cheques signed by the Presidents of the Municipalities.

Circular No. 1829.

The following letter of the Superintendent of Stamps, Madras, is published for the information and attention of the Treasury Officers in Mysore.
